TITLE

JavaScript Tutorial: Mapping ES6 arrays with HTML5 Local Storage

INTRO

This is an HTML5/JavaScript tutorial and is intended to teach users what HTML5 local storage is, why it is useful, and how to use it. Many developer and coder workflow tips are covered as well.

INTRO

Hello friends! This is episode 3 in my self publishing project for my upcoming memoir: "Confessions of a Talented & Gifted Dropout"

Join me in this short episode as I discuss my file & folder organization framework. This video will cover:

- Building an InDesign master page book template for a photo book based on Nigel French's LinkedIn Learning course "Designing an Illustrated Book".
- Reviewing the details and specifics of Balboa Press' E-Volve publishing package (2016, no longer offered).
- We review the email I got in July of 2016, after ordering my E-Volve publishing package for around $600.

TIMESTAMPS

TIMESTAMPS:

- 0:00 - Intro
- 1:11 - What is OneTab?
- 2:15 - What problem does the script solve?
- 3:45 - How to add group name to OneTab
- 4:26 - Run scraper from console

ABOUT ME

ABOUT ME:

I am a multi-disciplined graphic designer based in Geneva, AL where I live in a little blue house with my wife and 9 cats. Yes, you heard that right -- and that's not even counting the two outside cats we care for! I know them each by name and love them all. That is my family that I live with on a tiny semi-rural deep south homestead we call Hepperle Manor.
